Non Disclosable interests

- 1) Other items may not be disclosable but still carry some kind of personal benefit or that members of the public could consider that the opinion of the councillor was not really independently acting for the whole community. This is a matter of personal conscience for the councillor concerned. If s/he is in any doubt s/he should speak to the clerk and chairman in confidence either before or during a short adjournment of the meeting. If the Councillor feels that the public could consider his views not to be truly independent then he should declare a personal interest and not vote although s/he can speak.
- 2) Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to a financial interest of a friend, relative or close associate, the member shall disclose the nature of the interest and not vote on the matter. S/he may speak on the matter. If it is a 'sensitive interest' the member shall declare the interest but not the nature of the interest.
